

Note from Kevin

Gratitude

Kevin Otis Administrator

It is with gratitude that I share my thoughts on the success of 2024 and the promise of 2025. In June of 2012, I was asked to share my vision for a children's home. The main elements were providing a continuum of care, marketing, vocational development, and providing a trauma informed model of care. Many gracious people have been involved in helping this vision become the reality for MHCO. MHCO has expanded the Independent Living Program to include young adults in need beyond those who graduated from the Direct Care Program. Transitional Living Cottages have been developed to help guide older adolescents toward the Independent Living Program and ultimate independence. The Community Support Center provides outreach support to families across the state, while offering resources to our human service partners and other organizations. Marketing efforts have helped address MHCO being a "Masonic secret" and become better known as an option for more families, employees, stakeholders, and donors. Vocational development has cultivated important employment opportunities for youth, while providing various vocational preparedness educational activities. The CARE Model helps all employees reflect on their approach to better assist children in overcoming their traumatic situations and develop toward a better today and tomorrow. As you review the annual report you will see the extended impact beyond caring for children on campus. Additionally, you will also see the positive impact MHCO has had for all the residents in care.

It is with gratitude that many more projects have been successfully accomplished during my tenure. Several capital projects have been completed with little to no cost to MHCO thanks to donors, grantors, and support from so many. These include the new pool, two playhouses, basketball court, outdoor lighting, a nature trail, the farm road bridge, twelve Eagle Scout projects, and the restoration of God's Half Acre. These and other projects would not have been possible without your support.

Additionally, MHCO has established the Ambassador program, provides space for Granville County United Way, Smart Start, Parents as Teachers, Granville Education Foundation, American Red Cross, and Baptist Children's Home Foster Care and Adoption services to operate, and refurbished the gym. All of these initiatives, projects, and more have been put in place for one purpose, to continue to provide exceptional care for the residents and expand services to help others in troubled circumstances.

As I travel across this wonderful state. I am reminded that the front windshield is much larger than the rear-view mirror for an important reason. It is where we are heading that is the most important focus, not where we have been. This year will provide a wonderful opportunity for new leadership to cast their own vision. I was blessed to follow amazing predecessors who built a tremendous foundation. My prayers are that our collective accomplishments will be beneficial to the next leadership team and will aid toward increased programming, continued best practices, expanded reach of services, and support great successes for those receiving services. I know you hear as I do the gratitude of those who have come to this campus and are in a better place thanks to the kind and caring folks who contribute in various ways so children can be children who develop into proud and responsible adults. Gratitude comes full circle as those who give of themselves are thankful for being able to provide caring support for the children. Thank you all so very much for your prayers, positive energy, and gracious support. What we have done together allows the children to see our vision clearly and make their own come into focus. With gratitude and best wishes, ko

Direct Care & Independent Living

MHCO provides loving care for children and young adults.

The Direct Care Program serves youth, including sibling groups, from birth to 18 years old. The Independent Living Program has two components. One is the transitional living cottages which serve youth from 16-19 to prepare them for the second component which serves youth 18-22 in independent apartment living.

BRIGHTER FUTURES

Speed Hallman, PGM Board Chairman

There is nothing new under the sun, but under the oaks at the children's home we're embracing change and encouraging innovation. For your consideration, as you read this report on 2024, here's what we're working on in 2025:

- We are constantly engaged in raising the level of care for children and monitoring our performance toward specific goals. The board of directors uses the Performance and Quality Improvement system to keep tabs on progress in key areas such as community service, educational opportunities, vocational experiences and safety training.
- With the addition of the Community Support Center, we're now engaged in outreach to help children and families off-campus. This is an exciting new dimension for us and is made possible by partnerships with human services agencies in the community. Working with others is a force multiplier, as our grand master says.
- We are developing new strategies and using more tools to ratchet up our development and marketing efforts, with a sharper focus on delivering messages to specific audiences and measuring the results. Marketing and development are collaborating to tell our story, recruit outstanding house parents and attract greater support.
- We continue to make the case for support to our Masonic brethren, their lodges and appendant bodies. The Masons created us and stood with us through booms and busts, world wars and global pandemics. We realize our long-term success depends on broad support within and outside of the fraternity, and to that end we're working to engage and educate a variety of new communities and partners.

 We're initiating a national search for a new CEO whose charge will be to build on our strengths and position the Home for another century and a half of service to children, however and wherever we can help them.

To that last point, in 2025 we say goodbye to Kevin Otis, our 18th administrator. He is a true childcare professional with vast experience in the field and a big heart geared toward helping children. In his 13 years with us Kevin has led the Home through many challenges and seized more than a few opportunities. Backed by the incomparable and gracious Mrs. Kevin, he has crisscrossed this big state to tell our story, win friends, raise money and make life better for our children. That has been his public role. Having spent many hours with him on campus I've been privileged to observe the easy rapport he has with our residents, and I've seen him working overtime almost all of the time to give them the very best home we can provide.

At 152 years young, Oxford is still a great place to be a kid. And at 152 years old, our Home has seen generations come and generations go. It's now up to us to ensure that new generations of children can find a home under the oaks. Thank you for all that you do, and will do, to serve the oldest – and best – children's home in North Carolina. I'm grateful for your support.

PERFORMANCE

Quality

IMPROVEMENT

The PQI system at MHCO measures and monitors performance using quantitative and qualitative data from a variety of stakeholders. The PQI Goals and Outcomes document is developed based on progress made towards goals and objects outlined in the Annual Plan and the quarterly PQI Reports, stakeholder feedback (including surveys), and information gathered from various PQI group meetings and the community. Data is gathered, analyzed, and reviewed on an ongoing basis to address needs in several areas including programming, resident retention, academic and vocational skill development, staff retention, financial health, marketing, and emergency preparedness.

2024:

- COA reaccreditation application and intake steps completed
- 173 stakeholder surveys distributed
- 94 (100%) case records reviewed
- PQI and COA training materials updated
- activities to increase staff engagement developed
- new tools for more effective and efficient data collection, analysis, and reporting created

2025 will be another exciting year! Evidence gathering for the COA preliminary self-study, self-study, and site visit is ongoing. The site visit by COA reviewers is scheduled for 9/15/25.

Annual Giving

Alvin Billings, PM

2024 recurring gifts showed marked increases over 2023. With the Grand Master's challenge and other incentives, we were able to increase giving by 22%. Look for a new and exciting recurring gift campaign in 2025. Annual gifts increased also, and we received heartfelt donations from 108 new donors in 2024. Initially we were asking for $100,000 to furnish new bedroom furniture for our 7 direct care cottages. In the end we received $173,000 which was enough to furnish all 11 cottages on campus! Job well done! A call went out for a new ATV for our security officer. In June we were presented with a new Honda. Masons and our supporters at work! Our development team is working on new and exiting ideas to engage our current donors and to cultivate new donors. We are utilizing our email base, home addresses, and social media to get our message and mission out. Our Facebook Masonic Home Mondays gives you up to date information and info about future happenings. We've developed the Red Devil Dispatch to provide the community with MHCO information. The Children's Chatter is sent to every Mason in North Carolina and is chocked full of stories about our events and schedules. Our new Website unveiled in 2024 has provided user friendly access to our information, referring a child, or making a donation. Utilizing a google ad grant we are pushing to make MHCO the top of search engines when searching for children's homes. Our TV commercials provide public exposure which will hopefully cultivate and educate them about our great mission. Thank you for all you do. It's always about the kids! 143

Community Support Center Partner's Impact

The Community Support Center is a developing program. The inclusion of providing community partners office space on campus has already provided great benefits to families and children in the area. MHCO is beginning in 2024 to coordinate training, counseling, workshops, and community awareness events.

MHCO currently provides office space for six organizations to operate in our area; Granville County United Way, Smart Start, Granville Education Foundation, Cradle to Class Parents as Teachers, and Baptist Children's Home Foster Care and Adoption Services. The American Red Cross joined operations at the csc in December 2024. These programs are a strong foundation of providing services to the community and collaborating with each other. The partner organizations and MHCO report being able to better serve and increase services to more recipients through this important collaborative arrangement.

Collectively MHCO's resources have supported extensive provision of services. These are the impact numbers from all partner organizations in the Community Support Center from their last annual reporting numbers.

- Granville County United Way served 23,645 individuals
- Granville Education Foundation awarded 58 grants to support creative and effective education for 2620 students.
- FGV Smart Start served a total of 242 children and 63 adults out of their Oxford office.
- Baptist Children's Home of NC served 21 children and 11 families through Foster Care.
- Cradle to Class Parents as Teachers served 61 children and 31 adults.
- American Red Cross served 73 participants.
- MHCO served 82 residents and provided facilities to other organizations serving 1084 individuals.

Total served from MHCO partnerships: 27,962 children and families and 58 grants awarded. These achievements recognize a twenty-seven percent increase of 5,983 children and families serviced and an increase of 32 grants awarded from 2023 to 2024. MHCO is proud to support these wonderful programs which supports families in the community, as well as, children living at MHCO.
